Job Opening in Roanoke, VA: Transportation Planner

Roanoke Valley-Alleghany Regional Commission Background

The Roanoke Valley-Alleghany Regional Commission (RVARC) is the regional planning agency serving 11 jurisdictions in western Virginia. The Regional Commission staff also support the functions of the Roanoke Valley Transportation Planning Organization (RVTPO), a seven-jurisdiction transportation management area encompassing the urbanized area of the Roanoke Valley. The Regional Commission is a leader in driving collaboration and strategy within our communities on issues that are critical to the economic growth and quality of life of this region.

The Valley is a growing metropolitan region offering a lower cost of living, abundant recreational and cultural resources. The region is served by Interstate 81, the Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport, and Amtrak Northeast Regional service. Residents enjoy the many benefits of an urban area in a smaller setting. The Regional Commission's offices are located in downtown Roanoke.

Transportation Planner Job Summary

The Transportation Planner is responsible for performing transportation-related professional and technical work independently and in teams. Such work may include preparing and developing regional plans and technical reports, analyzing and interpreting transportation information, presenting information to stakeholders, creating maps, conducting field work, maintaining databases, and representing the Commission to local or state organizations. Additionally, maintaining current knowledge on federal and state transportation legislation, the latest technical transportation analysis methods, and software skills such as those related to virtual platforms, Microsoft Office and Geographic Information Systems (GIS).
